My girl friend Abbey Mason place they collection of ebook to me. Philippi "First Church in Europe or an origins myth There is neither archaeological nor literary evidence for the foundation of a Christian community at Philippi by an apostle called Paul. But there is evidence for the manufacture of martyr cult of Paul at Philippi beginning in the 4th century, that is, after the Christian religion entered the corridors of power. Funerary inscriptions indicate the presence of Christians in the city in the 3rd century but how "orthodox" they may have been is impossible to establish.

Philippi - Wikipedia The development of Christianity in Philippi is indicated by a letter from Polycarp of Smyrna addressed to the community in Philippi around AD 160 and by funerary inscriptions.
